When it arrives,
 Everyone cheers.
 The shirts and shorts dance
 On the clothesline,
 The trees and flowers wave
 Like they're saying hi,
 And the clouds are so excited
 To have a running race.

When it comes,
 Dad's face falls.
 His coat and jeans jump
 Off the clothesline
 Into the pond.
 The tree leaves hop off
 And have a party on his new car.

When it gets here,
 A lot of fun things I notice:
 The pond's face,
 Sad and old with lines;
 Mrs. Smith's bread,
 Delicious and freshly baked.
 But what smell is it?
 Oh, no, it's from Mr. Brown's feet!

- () 16. What is it in the reading? [62%]

Group : Buffy, Debby, Jamie, Albert, Matt... (7)

Hey, guys! I have a lot of things I don't need, so I'm thinking about having a yard sale. What do you think?

Thank you!

Having a yard sale is not easy. You have to collect things, put prices on them, put them out on tables and then wait for people to come. And usually you have to sell things at VERY low prices. For all that time and work, you make very little money. Why not just sell your things online for higher prices?

Debby's right. But I think it'd be even better to just give your things to people who need them. I just sent out a lot of things last week.

Hey, I love yard sales! It's a great chance to make big money if you pick the right day. In my experience, Saturday is the best.

I agree with Albert. You can make money and meet interesting people. I made some good friends at my last yard sale.

Now I'm going to show you how to work with chocolate. I'll do it in a "bain-marie," or, well, some people call it "water bath." I myself love the name "bain-marie." To make a "bain-marie," you need two pots, one bigger than the other.

First, break the chocolate into small pieces and put them in the smaller pot. Usually when making chocolate desserts, you'll need to mix chocolate with butter and sugar. So if you do, put them in the pot too.

Now, half fill the bigger pot with warm water. Put the smaller pot over the bigger one, and start to slowly mix the chocolate, the butter, and the sugar together. Keep the water under 50°C, or the chocolate may lose its shine. And make sure that no water goes in the smaller pot, or the chocolate will become hard and cannot be used.

Keep mixing for about five to ten minutes, and the job is done. Easy, right?

Taiwanese Bian-dang in Manhattan, New York City

Big Apple News

5/30/ 2014 by Eva Schmidt

During lunch time, on 53rd Street, you'll see a long line of people in front of a Taiwanese food truck for their "bian-dang," a Taiwanese word for "lunch box." On the menu you can find fried chicken with rice, pork dumplings, tea eggs, and other popular Taiwanese dishes.

The owners of the food truck are Thomas and Diana Yang, two Taiwanese-Americans. This brother-sister team started their business in 2009. Back then, there were a few Taiwanese restaurants in the city and several thousand food trucks, but the Yangs were the first to sell Taiwanese food on a food truck.

At first, business was slack. People thought they were just another Chinese food truck, and the food truck's name, "Cravings," often made people think of desserts, not lunch. Few people would stop by and try their food. "I couldn't even give away free food," said Thomas. To catch people's eye, they painted their truck blue, and drew Taiwan's national flower, the plum blossom, on it. They also changed the food truck's name to "bian-dang." Soon people started to notice them, and business finally got better. Now on a good day, they can sell about 150 bian-dangs in about two hours.

So what's next for Thomas and Diana? Well, they hope one day there will be a block with Taiwanese food in the city, just like there is a Chinatown, a Korea Town, and a Little Italy. And their bian-dang food truck might just help to make that happen.

This is a letter by Selena Bieber to the students in her school.

Later Is Better!

Selena Bieber
Northville High School

Do you feel it's hard to get up early for school and even harder to listen well in the first class at 8 a.m.? Well, this happens to most of us and is not helpful for our learning!

Some studies show that teenagers' brains make melatonin, the hormone that helps sleep, between 11 p.m. and 8 a.m. So it's better for us to sleep during these nine hours. But here comes the problem. We're asked to get to school by 7:30 a.m. That means we have to get up before 7, when our brains should still be sleeping. That's why we're always so tired and can't think clearly in early morning classes. No clear head, no good learning, right?

If we can't change how our body works, why can't school start later? In this way, we can not only sleep more but also learn better!

Want to help us make it happen?

〔46%〕

We studied 48 high school students and found that the students who went to bed earlier did better on their school tests. This is not only true for those who slept nine hours, but also true for those who slept less. And some of them agreed that they learned better in early morning classes.

Do the ideas in Selena Bieber's letter agree with the information?

- (A) Yes, because her letter says it is better to sleep from 11 p.m. to 8 a.m.
 (B) Yes, because her letter says getting up early is not helpful for learning.
 (C) No, because her letter says students are asked to get to school by 7:30 a.m.
 (D) No, because her letter says teenagers' brains do not work well in early morning classes.

Kivalina, an island village in Alaska, USA, is known by only a few people. It cannot be found on most maps of Alaska because it is only 10 km². This small Arctic village is home to 400 Inuit people*. However, their home will become uninhabitable because the island could be covered by the Chukchi Sea by 2025. These Inuit people will have to leave their home.

But life now is already difficult. Over the past twenty years, winters have become warmer, the Arctic ice has kept melting, and the sea has been rising. These changes have made it harder to live by hunting and fishing than before. What's worse, there is no Arctic ice thick enough to keep them safe from terrible wind and rain.

These Inuit people think it is the oil and power companies in Alaska that have brought all these troubles, but they are the ones who are paying the price. It would cost hundreds of millions to move their village, and they have no idea where to get the money. Groups like ReLocate are working together with the Inuit people to save Kivalina, but nobody is sure if their hard work will come to anything. All the Inuit people can do now is to pray the rising sea will not cover their home too soon.

★ The Inuit people are a group of people who live in the Arctic.

After a lot of tests and interviews, you finally got into a good school or got a good job. But there's a problem: it's a long way from home. "Well, I can take the bus or drive," you might think. But before you decide whether it's OK to have such a long commute, it's best to know 35.

Having a long commute means you'll get fewer hours of sleep, and that'll make you feel tired easily. You'll also have less time for friends and family, for exercise, or for a nice meal.

A long commute not only eats up your time but also 36. Studies show that people who have a long commute get fat easily and often have neck or back problems. It's easier for them to have heart problems too. 37. Studies find that these people get angry more often, feel less happy with their lives, and do less well at work.

Now, does that good school or that good job still sound good to you?

Readers' Words

There are many fights in this thick book that you would see in a good action movie. In fact, the book has been made into a movie, but I'm just not interested. How would I enjoy the movie when the book didn't touch my heart at all?

I don't mind reading about bad guys in a story. In fact, I don't enjoy a book that has only good people who never do anything wrong, because it's just not real life. But Lyle Heaton goes too far this time. I've read Heaton's other books, and he is very good at writing about bad guys, but what is he trying to tell us by letting the bad guys in this book win everything in the end?

Besides, you always have to guess who the "I" in the book is. Heaton changes it so often that sometimes you just don't know who is speaking.

You might feel a lot of things when you read Purple Star, but believe me, joy wouldn't be one of them.

(Alex)

- () 23. What does Alex tell people about Purple Star?
- (A) They might have a difficult time when they read it.
- (B) They would enjoy it more if they read it a second time.
- (C) They must read Heaton's other books before they read this one.
- (D) They would not find any other books that are as good as this one.
- () 24. What does Alex mean when he says Lyle Heaton goes too far this time?
- (A) There are too many fights in Purple Star.
- (B) Heaton keeps changing who the "I" is in Purple Star.
- (C) The bad guys win everything at the end of Purple Star.
- (D) The good people in Purple Star never do anything wrong.
- () 25. What can we learn about Alex from the reading?
- (A) He does not like to read thick books.
- (B) He seldom watches movies that are made from books.
- (C) He thinks a story without bad guys in it is not like real life.
- (D) He has decided to watch the movie made about Purple Star.

Do you hate bees flying around when you're having a picnic? Perhaps you'll think again after you hear this : Bees play an important part in feeding the world—without the help of bees, we might lose as much as 90% of our food. And now here's some bad news: Our little helpers are dying. In Europe and North America, the number of bees has dropped sharply. The UK, for example, reported a worrying 54% drop over the last 20 years.

It's hard to tell why bees are dying. Some believe it's because winters are getting too cold for them. Some think Varroa Destructor is the culprit. This very small kind of bug lives on bees and slowly kills them. Others feel we are in the wrong. When we turn more land into houses, more plants die. This means bees will not be able to find enough food. There may be a lot of guesses about it, but what's more important is to find an answer soon. If we don't take action, we'll all "bee" sorry.

Colorful goes on sale, starting from March 7th

Ted Morrison, a blind singer, touched many hearts with Simple Mind, his best-selling album. His music is popular at home and abroad and is often used in movies. His new work, Colorful, is as great as ever. Here are four songs from the new album that mean the most to him.

▶▶ Let the Light Shine

This song is about Ted's father—he is always there and gives Ted hope in difficult times. Just like how Ted's father makes him feel, this song can warm your heart.

▶▶ River

Ted wrote this song to remember his mother. His mother's face is what he misses the most since he lost his sight. This is the first time Ted plays the piano on an album.

▶▶ Winter Snow

The idea of this song comes from Christmas holidays Ted spent with his grandparents when he was little. They are long gone but he wants to remember those days with the song.

▶▶ Across the Sea

Just like New Land on Simple Mind, Ted's wife joins him in this song. She wrote it to celebrate their love for each other.

It 38 one night. I was cooking dinner, and at that moment, I really needed to go to the bathroom. Without turning the gas off, I quickly went to the bathroom. When I finished, I couldn't open the door. "I can't get out!" I shouted. I became worried that I 39 in a fire!

"No!" I kicked the door hard but it didn't move an inch. I turned around and saw hope. I hurried over to the window and pushed it really hard. 40. I just couldn't open it. I would have to break it. I started hitting it with the hardest thing I could find—a trash can.

With a loud "BANG," the window broke. "I'm safe!" I took in the fresh air happily. 41, the cold wind woke me from my joy. I was on the tenth floor and there was no way to get down! I kept shouting for help. Luckily, someone heard me and called 119.

Since then, I've never closed the door when I use my bathroom.

Making goulash
 we don't talk much,
 Daddy and me.

“The talking's in the making, son,”
 he smiles.
 I see what he means.

It's in the knife
 meeting the beef,
 in the dancing of potatoes
 as they turn in the water, in the singing
 of boiling soup in the pot.

There are enough words
 in the way
 Daddy teaches me his famous dish and the way he hugs me when we finish.

Making goulash
 we don't talk much,
 Daddy and me,
 but everything is said.

Animals have their special ways to deal with hard times in nature. The superb fairy-wren, one kind of bright-blue bird in Australia, is one example. This year, a ten-year study showed that this small bird has eggs of different sizes in different kinds of weather. When the weather is hot and dry, there is less food for young superb fairy-wrens, and they die easily. So the mother bird will make larger eggs to help her babies grow stronger inside before they break out of the eggs into the “hungry” world.

However, not all mother birds are able to do this trick. Only those with at least one male child can. When the weather is “good,” the mother will make smaller eggs, and her sons will bring food back for their baby brothers and sisters from the eggs. With her sons’ help, the mother can save more energy to make larger eggs when the weather is bad. Isn’t this amazing?

Here are two pieces of news that Annie collected for her report.

Papier-mâché is works of art that are made of paper. In Taiwan, it is known as zhizha and is usually burned as a gift for dead people. Taiwan's papier-mâché is dying because it is not much needed now. However, this dying art won a Frenchman's heart when he visited the island. He then invited one of the papier-mâché shops, Hsin Hsin Paper Offering Store, to show their beautiful works in France. The shop owner's son also used papier-mâché in a way that no one ever thought of — making a movie with it.

Stan Lai is very important in Taiwan's theater. He brought changes to Chinese theater art of the old days to make it closer to our life experiences and easier to understand. One of his most famous works is That Evening, We Performed Crosstalk (1985). It was such a smash hit that people became interested again in xiangsheng, a show of funny talk between two actors. This art used to be a hobby that only a few people shared, but Lai has opened a bigger market for it. Now it has fans across all ages.

For many people, having a cup of coffee right out of bed is the best way to start a day. But a report from Asap Science says otherwise. It says the worst time for coffee is soon after we get up. When we wake up, our bodies start to make cortisol. Cortisol helps us to think clearly and be quick to understand and act. The cortisol levels rise after we wake up and climb to the highest in about an hour. So there are two problems when we drink coffee during this time : (1) our bodies will make less cortisol, and (2) the cortisol will make coffee less useful. And that's why some of us drink more and more coffee.

Then, when's the best time to have coffee? When the cortisol levels are going down, the report says. Cortisol levels are usually highest between 8 a.m. and 9 a.m., between noon and 1 p.m., and between 5:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. So if you want to have coffee, enjoy it after these times, and this popular drink will help you the most.

Below is part of a new shopping center’s market report.

Our busiest time is weekend afternoons, between 1:30 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. About half the business of the week is done then. So it would be better if we move Weekend’s Best Buy from Saturday evening to Saturday afternoon when there may be more shoppers during the sale. We should also think about having more free buses during the weekend, as 75% of the shoppers who were interviewed said two buses an hour are just not enough.

Weekend evenings are second busiest, though it is not as good as last season. An interesting fact is that business is better on weekday evenings, usually one hour before closing, than on weekend mornings. Most of the shoppers then are people who live near or working parents who do their last-minute shopping. They together make up almost 60% of the business on weekday evenings. It might bring in more business if we open half an hour longer during weekdays, until 10:30 p.m.

Dear Maggie,

I know you won't be happy but I still have to say this again. It hurts me to think that you're going to 36. I know you've always wanted to be like those actresses with big eyes and slim legs, but in fact you are already beautiful. What you are born with makes you special because nobody looks the same as you.

It worries me more that 37. But sadly, there's no quick fix to this, not even with the doctor's help. If you don't try to like yourself first, no one else will. People like you not because of your face, but because of your heart. You need to understand this first. Until you understand this, nothing is going to be different even if you have this change.

I truly hope you think this through again.

Love,
Linda

Though Robert felt a little strange, he did not think about it too much and sat down for a rest on a bench in the park. Then he noticed the snake he had just seen 17 . Robert was too afraid to move away from the bench. Right at this moment, a woman behind him shouted, "Come here, Robert. You can't stay on the bench like that. 18 ."

In surprise, Robert turned around and said to the woman, "Excuse me, but that's not a very nice thing to say, and in fact some people say I'm handsome."

If you cannot live without your car, Zurich might be the last city you would like to visit. In Zurich, people are welcome, but cars are not! Over the past 20 years, this city has used smart ways 19 . One is to keep the same total number of parking spaces. For example, if 50 new parking spaces are built in one part of the city, then 50 old spaces in other parts are taken away for other uses. So the total number does not change. Some are unhappy that there are never enough spaces. That is just what the city has in mind : If people find parking more difficult, they will drive less.

20 , the total number of cars in the city is counted. Over 3,500 little computers are put under Zurich roads to check the number of cars that enter the city. If the number is higher than the city can deal with, the traffic lights on the roads that enter the city will be kept red. So drivers who are traveling into Zurich have to stop and wait until there are fewer cars in the city. Now, you may wonder 21 . The answer is simple : The city wants to make more space for its people.

Edward's Travel Tips

What kind of place do you usually choose to stay for the night during a trip? Expensive hotels that may make you feel like you don't get what you pay for? Or cheap hostels that put you and five other strangers in the same bedroom? If both choices sound terrible to you, here's something new: holiday apartments.

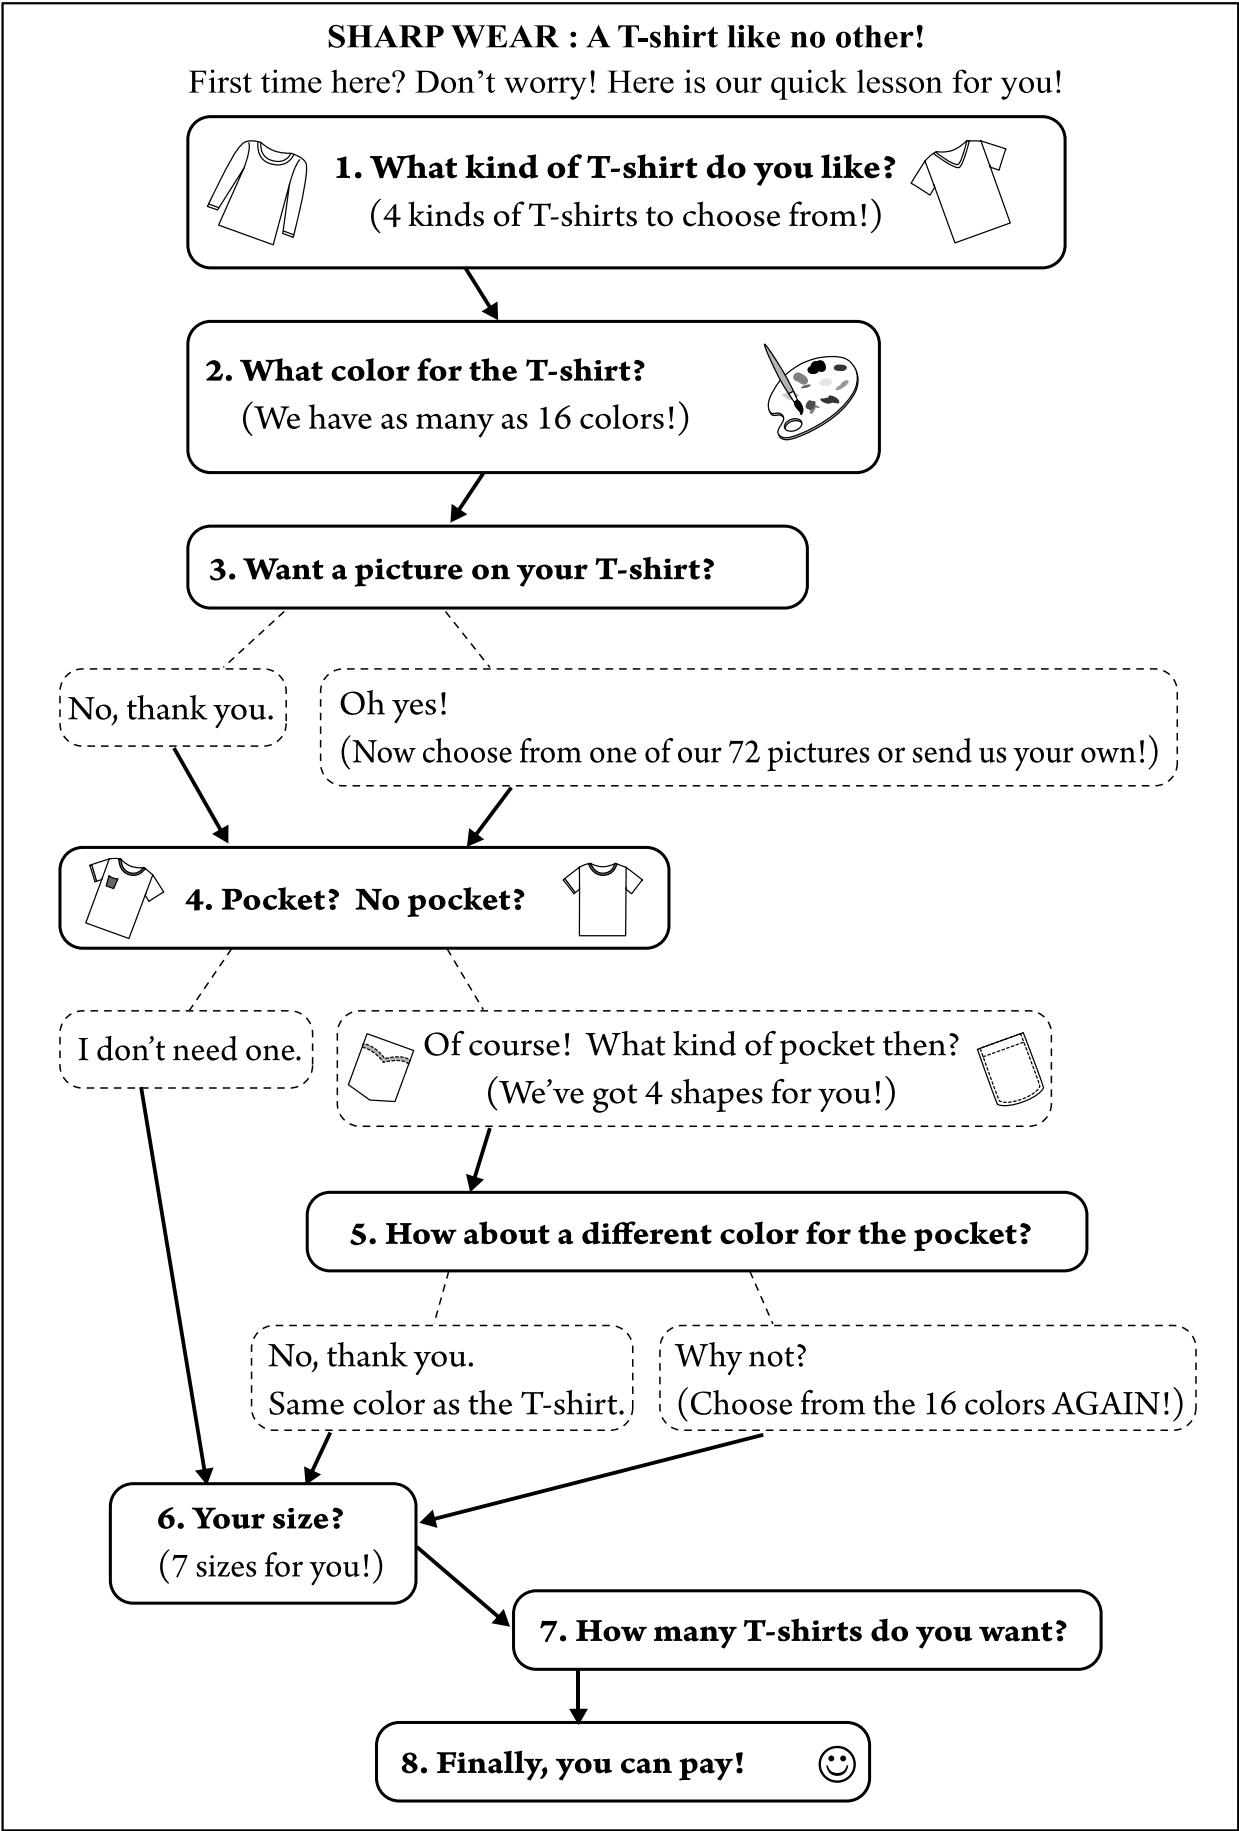

In a holiday apartment, you have more space than what a hotel room can give you. Everything in the apartment is at your disposal. The living room, the kitchen, the study, and, of course, the bedrooms are all for your own use. Some apartments even have a lovely garden or a game room. You'll feel at home in the holiday apartment. The best thing is, a holiday apartment is not expensive. The price for a holiday apartment is for two people, and the apartment is often cheaper than a hotel room for two. You only need to pay a little more for a third or fourth person. If you travel with friends or your family, a holiday apartment will be your best choice!

When we get wet, we need a towel to get ourselves dry. When a dog gets wet, all it needs is to shake its body. A study in 2010 showed that a wet dog can throw off half the water on its body by shaking for less than a second. In fact, this common act of dogs works better than a washing machine.

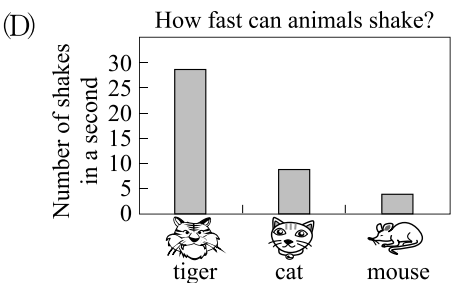

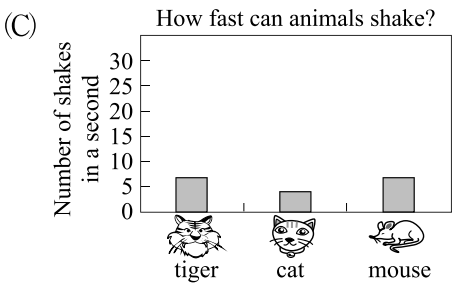

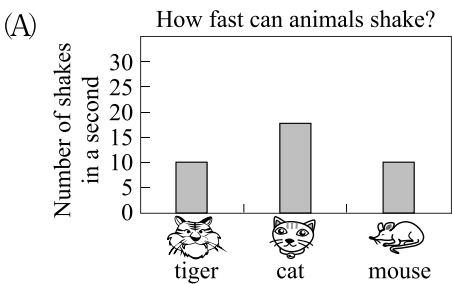

The study found that animal shaking begins with the head and ends with the tail. During a shake, the animal's head, body and skin all move. Smaller animals must shake faster than bigger animals to get water off. For example, in one second, a rat can shake 18 times, a dog 6 times, and a bear 4 times. Bigger animals can get their bodies dry with fewer shakes.

For animals, shaking is not just about getting themselves dry. It is also about saving their lives. Being wet makes animals heavier, and that makes it harder to run. In the animal world, how fast an animal can run often decides whether it will live or not. Maybe that's why the "wet-dog shake" has become a common habit of many animals.

Josh : Do you know about “pay it forward coffee” at Flora Café?

Eric : You mean you pay for a cup of coffee for someone poor to have it later?

Josh : Yeah. A cup of coffee is not much, but on cold winter days like today, it might warm them up a little. And maybe their hearts too.

Eric : But will Flora Café really give this cup of coffee to someone later?

Josh : Come on. I’ve known the shopkeeper well. He’s an honest man. He’s got a blackboard in the shop that says how many cups are paid for and how many have been given out.

Eric : But how will they know who to give? Anyone can ask for it, even if they’re not poor.

Josh : True, but then I guess they’ll just have to believe in people.

Eric : Perhaps. But will poor people go and ask for a free coffee? Won’t they worry about losing face?

Over the years, the number of whales has dropped sharply. From 1946 to 1986, about 340,000 whales were killed. People worry that children in the future can only see whales in pictures. They believe all kinds of whaling (whale hunting) should be stopped before it's too late.

Some people are trying to stop whaling all over the world. But they fail to notice one fact: Whaling was going on for a long time before the number of whales went down and became a problem.

Whaling started as early as 1,500 years ago. This was how tribespeople fed their families. They hunted whales for meat because almost nothing could grow on their land. They also made whale fat into oil and used it to make candles or oil lamps. Over the years, whaling became their way of living, and even part of who they are.

Tribe whaling is not the thing we should worry about. Of all the whales that were killed over the past forty years, only 10% were hunted by tribespeople. The other 90% died at the hands of the money-making whaling business. When we try to stop all kinds of whaling, we should think what we are asking tribespeople to give up and whether this is the best answer to the problem of whaling.

N B N NEWS*Ryan Kim 7/15/2013*

Guesses about Carolyn Cole have been flying around since last week, and now things have taken a new turn.

Last week Carolyn Cole won the Inscriber Prize, the country's biggest book prize, with her book Paper Soldier. Cole herself did not show up for the prize. It was not only the first time in history that a first-time writer won the prize, but also the first time that the winner did not appear.

Now here comes another "first time" for the Inscriber : Cole is not real. "She" is in fact Thomas Goode. Goode is known for his picture books. His best-known book, Blue Moon, won him two national book prizes and sold over one million copies.

Goode had tried to write "serious" books before. His first try was Parent, which came out in 2006. Sadly, Goode's big name did not help, and there was little interest in Parent. Goode's friend told NBN that he wanted to write a book under a different name. Goode thought that people might treat his book seriously if they did not know it was from a picture book writer.

For the moment, there has been no word from Goode yet.

I had a horrendous experience last Saturday.

That day, my family went camping near a big lake. While my parents were preparing dinner, my brother and I were playing by the lake. A dirty man appeared from somewhere, and his face was half covered by his hair. He walked to us and asked for some water.

When I gave him water, the bag he carried dropped, and things inside fell out on the grass. I saw a rope, a knife, and a baseball bat. The strangest thing was that there were also a woman's shoe and a ring, and I'm sure they were not his. The man quickly put all his things back in the bag and looked at us angrily. At that moment, the picture of a man the police was looking for came to my mind. He was the crazy killer! I was so afraid that I could not move at all.

Luckily, before he could get any closer, my mom shouted from far away, and the man hurried off into the dark.

When you need to see a doctor, surely you will want to see a good one. But there is one important thing you may never have thought about: Has your doctor rested enough?

Doctors in our country often have to work 34 hours or longer without sleep. Most of them work 104 hours a week, and some even 150. (There are only 168 hours a week!) One report said that a doctor who works such long hours cannot think more clearly than a drunk driver. Another found that doctors who sleep 5.8 fewer hours than the week before might make 22% more serious mistakes. Surely no one wants to get in a car that is driven by a drunk driver. So, how safe would you feel when you are under the care of a tired doctor?

Sadly this problem has been around for a long time. There are no laws about it yet and hospital bosses don't look like they care either. And that is why we doctors are asking you to join us on the street this Sunday. Fight together with us on the street so we can fight better for your life in the hospital.

Have you ever seen a pumpkin that looks like a nose or an apple that looks like a funny face? They may not look great, but they taste just as good as the pretty ones. These strange-looking fruit and vegetables are called “seconds.” About 20-40% of what farmers grow is not so beautiful. Sadly, these “seconds” seldom arrive at your table, but often go straight into the trash can. Why? It's because supermarkets don't want to buy them from farmers—they believe their shoppers only love beautiful things. Because of these “seconds,” some farmers lose a lot of money.

Wonky Markt wishes to change this. We're helping sell these “seconds.” Farmers can save them from the trash can, and you can get them at a lower price.

Wonky Markt

1. NT$250 a box.
2. You can choose as many as six kinds of fruit and vegetables a box.
3. Service charge: NT$50 a box.
4. No service charge if order is over NT$1,000.

Send us photos of your delicious dishes that are made with our “seconds” to oneandonly@wonkymarkt.com, and you may win our cookbook.

Thanks to globalization, we get to see movies from around the world. If anyone should feel most excited about globalization, it is US movie makers. A study in 2001 shows that, for every 100 people who go to the theater, 85 see US movies. This may be good news for US movie makers, but not for those in other countries.

Chart 1 shows the percentages (%) of US movies in five countries in 1984 and in 2001; Chart 2 shows the percentages (%) of domestic movies in the five countries in 1984 and in 2001. In Chart 1, we can see that US movies have been popular in foreign markets. In Chart 2, we can see that domestic movies in the five countries are not doing well in their domestic market. The falling market for domestic movies may be a serious problem, but there is something more important. When people welcome US movies with open arms, they in fact also say yes to the American way of thinking. Some people in these countries worry that what is lost may not just be their domestic market for domestic movies, but also their own way of thinking that has been passed down from parents to children.

The wind keeps blowing.
 The door keeps opening.
 Will you be with me, my dear Lucy,
 When I look for candy
 Down there in the dark, dark kitchen?

The wind keeps crying.
 The door keeps shaking.
 Will you be with me, my dear Lucy,
 When I pick up my toy puppy
 Out there on the high, high balcony?

Wish you could always be with me
 And make them go away with your Do-Re-Me.
 I remember last Halloween
 They ran away when you started to sing,
 “Dear Tommy, my little king,
 Close your eyes and have a sweet dream.”

So please stay with me and sing
 To stop them kicking the door, riding the wind,
 And pulling me down to their house under the ground.
 They’ll go away if you sing here for me,
 In a voice that gets a black cat’s hair standing,
 The strongest legs shaking, and the window glass breaking.

Catch-22
by Joseph Heller

2

There was a soldier...

This job is dangerous.
I could die any time I fly.

Soldier

5

Hospital

Soldier

6

Doctor, how can I get out of my dangerous job?

Soldier

Doctor

7

Rule 22 - A soldier can stop flying airplanes only if he is crazy. But he has to MAKE THE DOCTOR BELIEVE IT.

Doctor

8

That's easy!

Soldier

9

Really? Think about it. If you are crazy, you won't worry about your life. Then you would never think you should stop flying airplanes. If you ever think you should stop flying, it means that you worry about your life and that you're not crazy. If you are not crazy, you have to keep flying. You see, you're caught by Rule 22. You have no way out. You will still need to fly.

Doctor

10

Now people use "catch-22," the name of Joseph Heller's book, to mean that someone has a problem like the soldier's.

Soldier

want to stop

get crazy first

BUT...

already got crazy

will not want to stop

Ellie : It’s... interesting.

Alec : Oh, no, don’t say that.

Ellie : The first thing you should know about Olivia is that she’s scared of anything with six legs.
 I don’t think she’ll be able to walk past the gate of Buzzing World.

Alec : But she loves butterflies! Well, she loved the photos of butterflies I took last time I was there.

Ellie : Only when they’re not moving.

Alec : Fine. I’ll just take her somewhere else, and that’d be OK. Right?

Ellie : Umm, you’re taking her to Wavelength for dinner?

Alec : What’s wrong with that?!

Ellie : I wouldn’t say a dead fish is really her idea of a nice dinner, and this restaurant sells seafood...

Alec : Now you’re wrong about this one. She loved my mom’s fish balls. She had several last time!

Ellie : OK, let’s ask someone else. Oh, there’s Lori. Hey, Lori, could you look at Alec’s plan?
 He’s taking Olivia out.

Since the first case of "Cow Cold" was reported in Kirk State in June, this killer cold has moved up north faster than we thought it would. By July, almost every part of the country had been attacked by Cow Cold. In only two months, the number of dead cows has risen to 5,000. Though Cow Cold started in the south, the east of the country is the worst hit area. By this week, 80% of the farms in Osten State have reported cases of Cow Cold.

The sale of milk in Osten State has slumped because of Cow Cold. Before Cow Cold, the sale of milk in Osten State was $2.5 million each week; now it is less than $500,000.

Odin State is the only area in the north without cases of Cow Cold. Before we know how to deal with Cow Cold, we can only hope Odin State will be lucky enough not to experience the power of this killer cold.

For years, we thought our Earth was the only blue dot up there. Now another has been found. Its name is HD189773b. HD189773b is an exoplanet, a planet outside our Solar System, and is one of the nearest exoplanets to Earth. Even so, 16. Here's why: It is 63 light years away. That means it is 370,440,000,000,000 miles from us. Even if we fly at 3,500 miles an hour, it will take more than 12 million years to get there.

17: It is much bigger, it is made of gas and it is burning hot. In heat as great as $1,000^{\circ}\text{C}$, life is not possible. What is worse, it rains glass. If $1,000^{\circ}\text{C}$ does not kill you, glass rain will.

Even so, finding this blue giant 18. It is the first time that we have been able to see the color of an exoplanet. The color of a planet gives us ideas about what is happening on it. While we have a long way to go before we find a new planet to live on, finding a blue dot is a good start.

Below is how four students answered their teacher's question in class.

Lily : I like shopping and talking to people. I think I can learn how to do business. Maybe selling clothes is a good business for me.

Ryan : My hobbies are playing computer games and making friends online. We often share our funny stories by e-mail. I guess I will learn more about computers and make super-smart computer programs.

Bill : My parents have kept lots of pets since I was little. We've experienced many things together, good and bad, happy and sad. Those stories have always stayed in my mind. One day, I will share them with people by drawing and writing books.

Anna : Though my mom and two sisters are all doctors, I'm sure I will stay as far away from a hospital as I can. I hate being sick, and I'm afraid of seeing sick people looking weak and sad. I'll keep strong by playing my favorite sport, tennis, every day. One day I'll join the national team and be another Lu Yen-Hsun.

📖 preface 前言 ; experiment 實驗

Here is the preface of Nick Foster's new book Married to Food.

Preface

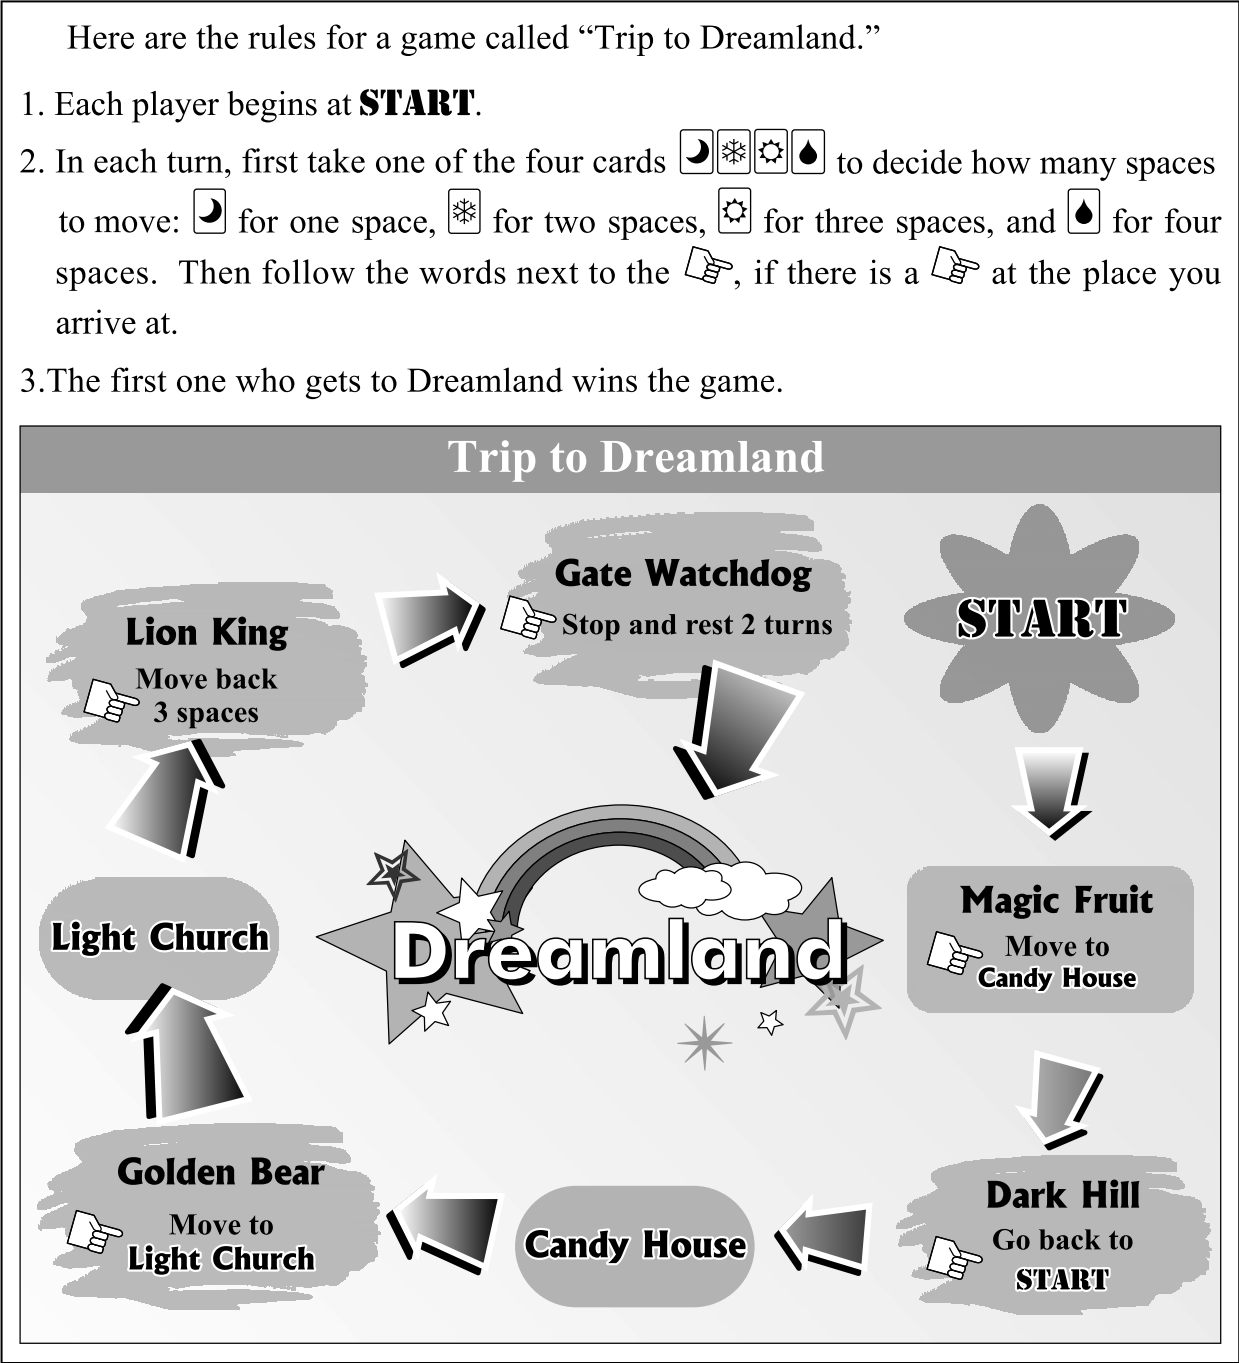

My mother was lousy at cooking. To her, cooking was more like an exciting experiment. You put some of this and some of that in a pot, and you wait and see what will happen. "No experiments, no experiences." is what she would say when her experiment did not turn out good, and I heard that a lot.

My father was a good cook, and he loved to cook, too. He often said that he got my mother to marry him with a table of delicious food, not with a beautiful ring. "A family needs only one good cook," he said.

Now I am a cook myself. And I have my own restaurant. I learned how to cook from my father, of course. From him, I learned the art of cooking. But I did learn one thing from my mother. It's her famous saying: "No experiments, no experiences."

- () 24. What does it mean when someone is lousy at something? [54%]
(A) They are famous for it.
(B) They cannot do it well.
(C) They think it is important.
(D) They are not interested in it.
- () 25. What can we learn from the preface? [39%]
(A) How Foster started his own restaurant.
(B) When Foster’s father married Foster’s mother.

The idea may hit you once or twice a year. You come home on a hot summer day, hoping to have a cool bath, and find out there is no water. Then you see how important water is in your everyday life. However, in many parts of the world, water is not just about one's everyday needs.

In countries like Tanzania, water is hard to get, and the job of collecting water falls on women's shoulders. Girls are often kept home from school to collect water while their brothers stay at school studying. Studies show Tanzanian girls who live 15 minutes from clean water spend 12% more time at school than those who live an hour away. More time spent collecting water means less time for learning. For these girls, "Knowledge is power" is not just words; it is a sad fact in real life. With less time spent at school, their chances of getting well-paid jobs are small, and they often have no voice in important matters, like who to marry. These girls are often married into poor families. They have little money or knowledge to take care of their children, who often end up dying young. For the baby girls who are lucky enough to live, their life may still center around "water," just like it did for their mothers.

 (B) How water may give a country power.
 (C) How water may play a part in one's future.
 (D) Why it is hard to get water in poor countries.
- () 30. What do we know from the reading? [50%]
- (A) Children in poor countries die from drinking dirty water every day.
 (B) Girls who spend little time at school have a harder life when they grow up.
 (C) Girls in countries like Tanzania are often paid less for the same job than the boys are.
 (D) Children from poor families are often kept from school to take care of younger children.

() 31. Families in the countries of Benin, Ghana, Guinea and Madagascar deal with the job of water-collecting the same way Tanzanian families do. From the reading, which chart (圖表) best shows the fact? [54%]

Froggie was a frog who never remembered where he had been. His biggest dream was to find the best pond to swim freely without worrying about water snakes. One day, Froggie hopped to a kitchen and jumped into a pot full of hot water. Froggie felt the burning heat and hurried out of the water as fast as his legs could carry him. "I almost died there!" Froggie thought.

A few days later, Froggie went back to the same kitchen, totally forgetting he had been there. He again hopped into the same pot. This time, the water inside was cool. He looked around and thought, "There's no water snake trying to eat me and I can have this place all to myself!" At that moment, Froggie knew it was his dream pond. What he didn't know was that the water was warming up over a low heat.

After thirty minutes of swimming, Froggie felt the water was warmer but he thought of this as a nice surprise. "This sure is the best place for swimming. I get to have a hot bath, too." During his comfortable bath, the water kept getting warmer and warmer. Froggie was so comfortable that he fell asleep. And he never woke up.

The Metro Times

Oct. 1, 2020

These years churches are in a calamitous state. To start with, the number of church-goers is dropping sharply (see Figure 1). Many say they do not belong to any church, and those who do go less often than they used to. Going to church appears less and less on people's to-do list. Another worrying fact is that fewer and fewer young people go to church, which leads to an older church (see Figure 2).

And there is also the problem with money. Keeping a church door open is not cheap. Fewer people going to church means little money coming in. This makes it harder to keep a church open.

When the time comes for a church to close, there is little to do but to sell it. Churches that were lucky enough to find a buyer were put to other uses. Some were changed into restaurants or school gyms, and some even became nightclubs, for example. Churches that had little luck were knocked down in the end.

Just like a store that keeps losing business needs to think of ways to save itself, it is perhaps time for the church to try to win people's hearts back and play an important part in people's lives again. This is not something that one can simply pray to get an answer to.

- () 37. What does it mean when someone is in a calamitous state? [52%]
- (A) They have serious trouble.
(B) They try to change themselves.
(C) They are looking for a second chance.
(D) They lost interest in the outside world.

- () 38. What can we learn about the church-goers from the report? [47%]
- (A) Between 1980 and 2005, few church-goers were younger than 50.
 - (B) In 2010, only 6% of church-goers were younger than 50 years old.
 - (C) In 2020, the percentage (%) of church-goers drops to lower than half that in 1980.
 - (D) Between 1980 and 2020, the rising number of old church-goers has led to an old church.
- () 39. What is talked about in the report? [55%]
- (A) Where the church's money goes.
 - (B) How people decide to join a church.
 - (C) What happens to churches that are closed.
 - (D) Why people have stopped going to church.
- () 40. Below are four findings from other reports. Which does NOT agree with the idea of the report? [39%]
- (A) "Reports show over 90% of church-goers go to church because their fathers do. In the last 20 years, 49% of men under 30 have left the church. That means there's a 90% chance that their children won't go to church. This is hard for the church to take in."
 - (B) "Between 2003 and 2010, over 1,000 new churches were built in the country. This may sound like good news. During the same years, however, more than 2,000 were closed."
 - (C) "In the report, 33% of the people that were interviewed say they never go to church and another 33% say they used to. Only 15% go to church at least once a month."
 - (D) "Of the 15 countries in the report, the percentage (%) of church-goers in some countries, like Denmark, is lower than 10%; in others, like Poland, the percentage is higher than 70%."

My family and I moved into our country house one month ago. The kids are planning to give a party at our new house. I hope all of you can come. The party will begin at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday. There will be lots of food and drinks.

Together with this letter is a map to our house. After you get off the train, take the road in front of the station. Follow it and you'll see a chicken farm. Don't make any turns. Keep going and you'll see a bridge. Cross the bridge and there will be a big tree on your left. Walk past the tree, take the first right turn, and then walk for five more minutes. You'll see several houses. My house is at the end of the road, next to the river.

Lonnie said she'll wear all white to the Christmas party. I said she's lost her mind. We wear white all the time. Who would still want to wear white on Christmas Eve?

Forever Takes a Bow

Actor Nathan Lang, 78 years old, died in his sleep last night in his house. Nathan Lang started his acting life in the 1970s. He was most known for playing Justin Maud in Young Hours. The movie made the world swoon over him. Women wanted a husband like him; men wanted a brother like him. Forever Justin, his fans called him. After Young Hours, Nathan Lang was seen in several big movies : Fallen, After Tonight, and Killing Jules. The last one won him a best actor award. In the 1980s, Nathan Lang lost his shine on the big screen. During this time, his movies never entered the top 20 list. Nathan Lang's last movie was Dreams. Though the movie won him two best actor awards, it did not bring his fans back to the theater.

This Saturday morning, 10 o'clock at St. Peter's Church, there will be a "movie party," as Lang wished. Friends and family will get together and enjoy once again the good times he brought to the world.

Six people are being interviewed about the garden on the roof of their building.

Wilber : The whole thing wasn't easy at first. But Jasmine helped a lot. And she was really good at making people happy to give money for the roof garden.

Reader's Story

It's never comfortable to take a bus during rush hour on a hot summer day. All my friends hate it. And I..., well, I 57 it, too.

The story happened two months ago. I was on a bus that was packed with almost everyone in the city. I 58 my friend Neal to see a show. And then he called and said he couldn't come. "This is not what I planned for Friday!" I thought. The air on the bus was terrible; the man in front of me smelled like dead fish. While I was feeling sorry for myself, a girl called my name. I didn't recognize her at first. Then I was surprised to find that she was Hui-ting, my old neighbor. I 59 Hui-ting in years. We used to play together every day when we were kids. We were happy to see each other, so we decided to have dinner together. And that was the start of many dinners after.

With Hui-ting, the bus ride 60 something I love. The bus is still packed with people, but I enjoy the ride every day.

Dear Aunt Tara,

I have a problem with my homework. We have to do it in a group. It has to be finished this Friday, but Gary, the boy in our group, has done nothing helpful. He just keeps rocking the boat. Every time we talk about the work with him, he always says, "Don't worry. I'll do it later." But he seldom does his job. And when he does, he does it the wrong way. Someone has to do it for him again. What's worse is when Ms. Lin asks about our group, Gary always tells her that we others don't work hard enough. I'm really mad at Gary about this. We're in the same group. Shouldn't we help each other to do a better job?

Kate

Dear Kate,

It is important for students to learn how to work together in a group. Maybe you should talk to Gary about the problem and tell him you all need his help. If he still doesn't change, go talk to your teacher. I believe she can make Gary do his job.

Here is Danny's science report for summer vacation.

7/1 I planted some beans in the flowerpot Mommy used to grow sunflowers in.

7/13 Leaves! Leaves on five bean plants!

7/18 Leaves on another three!

7/19 The biggest one is like a giant looking down at his shorter brothers.

In the art world, many artists with “weak” bodies have shown us a “strong” power in their great works of art. Take Frida Kahlo for example. She was a healthy girl until she was knocked down by a bus at the age of twelve. Much of her body was seriously hurt, but her mind wasn’t. In her paintings, we can feel her strong love of art and life. Another example is Christy Brown. He was born in bad health, and the only part of his body that could move was his left foot. However, using his only foot, he still was able to write and draw wonderfully. In his autobiography, Brown wrote what happened in his life and how he began to draw pictures with his left foot. And don’t forget Stevie Wonder. He became blind soon after he was born, but he is now a popular singer and songwriter.

These artists with “weak” bodies bring us many good things and much hope with their “strong” minds. Their stories tell us that the most important thing in life is not what we have, but what we make of it.

Here is what Matt said about his life changes in an interview.

“It’s like getting a new life, I mean, living with the Tragers.

Being the oldest kid in Rosario Landing isn’t something you’d be proud of. People who go there usually want younger kids, babies even, because babies remember little about their real parents, and it’s easier for them to become close to their new parents. I felt happy for those who left with their new families. I really did. But it got harder to be happy for them when you were never the one to go.

I never thought Nicole and Thomas would pick me. They said they felt like they had known me for many years. After spending a few afternoons with me, they decided to take me home.

It’s never easy to have a stranger in your life. Lori is nice, but she’s too polite, like I was just one of her parents’ friends. We talk, but not very warmly. Sean deals with it better than his older sister. I slept in his room before I had my own, and we got to play tricks on each other three nights later, like real brothers.

If there’s anything I can do to make them feel easier with me, I’ll try. I want to, because, for the first time in my life, I feel that I belong somewhere.”

Today our teacher took us to Mr. Chang's farm. When we got there, we saw cows walking around and eating the grass. Mr. Chang let his cows walk freely outside. He even touched their faces and talked to them like a father. Also, Mr. Chang only fed his cows with fresh grass and spring water from nature. He took good care of his cows so he could sell people the best milk. When he milked the cows, he even let us try. It was really exciting to get fresh milk from the cows by myself! If you enjoy reading, don't miss Shakespeare and Company when you visit the city of Paris. It is a famous English-language bookstore on the left bank of the river Seine. The first Shakespeare and Company in history was opened in 1919 by an American, Sylvia Beach. Ms. Beach did more than sell books. Her bookstore was also a library, and she even prepared beds for writers visiting there. Ms. Beach was not only kind to people but also good at choosing books, so her bookstore was often visited by writers like Ernest Hemingway and James Joyce. But in 1941, after the Germans took power in Paris, Ms. Beach was told to close her bookstore.

In 1951, another American, George Whitman, opened in Paris another English-language bookstore, Librairie Mistral. Since then, just as Ms. Beach did, Mr. Whitman has also made his bookstore a library for people to borrow books, and a free hotel for writers to stay in. To remember Ms. Beach, Mr. Whitman changed the name of his bookstore to Shakespeare and Company in 1964, two years after Ms. Beach died.

Daddy,

When I told you I want to marry Mike, you said a 22-year-old girl is too young to get married. You also think it's dangerous to marry a man I've known for only one year. But I don't think so. I'm smart and old enough to know Mike loves me, and we've known each other well enough to start a family.

Mike used to smoke a lot and wear long hair. But he stopped smoking because I hate the smell. He also cut his hair short because I don't like men with long hair. Isn't it great to marry a man who changes himself for me?

Amy

Amy,

I think you've known Mike long enough as a friend, but maybe not long enough to marry him. You're still young, and I hope you can take more time to understand him better. Mike's changes show he cares about you. But you both should know love doesn't really mean changing or even losing oneself.

I'm worried about you because I love you. I never thought my little girl might leave me so early. But if you think you're ready for a new life, I will see you off with smiles and best wishes.

Did you know the meaning of a word may change over time? Many English words we know now had different meanings a long time ago. One example is the word nice.

Around the year 1300, nice was first used in English to mean 'stupid.' Two hundred years later, nice began to carry a "better" meaning. If people said a book was written nicely, they meant the book was written 'clearly' or 'carefully,' not 'stupidly.' After 1800, nice began to take its modern meanings like 'kind' or 'friendly.' Since then, people have thought of nice as a word with "good" meanings.

A "good" change of a word's meaning like this example of nice is called AMELIORATION. Though we don't use nice to mean 'stupid' anymore, it is fun to know how much a word's meaning can change from its start!

⊕ For more examples of AMELIORATION, see next page.

Lin-hua : Mom, can I put my pet fish into the river?

Mom : No! When you bought it, you told me you'd take care of it, remember?

Lin-hua : But now I want it to live free.

Mom : I think you're just tired of keeping it. Also, if your pet fish comes from another country, it may bring some problems for the living things in our country after you put it into our river. Haven't you heard about the fire ants from South America? Since they were brought to Taiwan, they've made lots of trouble for the animals and plants here.

Lin-hua : But I read a newspaper report which said that in New Zealand, animals and plants from other countries aren't always trouble-makers. With these new friends, New Zealand has become a country with many different kinds of animals and plants.

Small Rice, Big Dream

Central Taiwan News
May 13, 2008

Two years ago, a small town in Changhua started to grow healthy rice. The healthy rice was not grown by farmers but by students from a small elementary school of only about fifty people.

The idea of growing rice came from the school teachers. When making teaching plans, the teachers decided to teach students how to grow healthy rice on school land. They wanted the students to get closer to the land and learn to help each other when doing the rice farming outside the classroom.

What's better, the school made money from selling the rice and giving farming classes to the public. With the money, the school could help students who wished to go to foreign countries some day. Today the dream is becoming real — the students are flying to Japan to share their special farming experiences, and have fun over there, of course!

"We all feel very proud that even students from a small town can make themselves seen in the world," said one of the teachers.
